Personal Finance

A budget is a plan for how money will be received and spent over a period. Tracking income and expenses helps people understand their habits, prepare for bills, and identify areas where spending can be reduced.

An emergency fund is money set aside for unexpected costs such as repairs or temporary loss of income. Saving a small, regular amount can build a reserve over time. Financial choices should reflect a person's needs, goals, and circumstances.